Berthoud Gun Club Rules, Regulations, and Fees
2018-2019

1. Membership dues of $500 are due by the annual spring meeting. A 1 month grace period will be allowed following the meeting before a $100 late fee will be applied.
2. A signed waiver is required each year. Guests are also required to sign a waiver before entering properties leased by the Club.
3. The annual spring meeting date is determined by the board each year. Notice will be both emailed and mailed to the membership.
4. Members are allowed 8 guest hunting passes a year at a cost of $25 per pass. Fees can be mailed in and are due at the annual spring meeting. Memberships will not be considered renewed until all guest passes have been paid for.
5. Members are required to work 8 hours or they can pay a $100 work fee instead of the work. Fee is to be collected at the annual spring meeting. Memberships will not be considered renewed without either 8 hours of work or $100.
6. Work hours can be obtained through the scheduled work days 4/28, 6/23, 8/18. They can also be obtained through the putting in or taking out of pits, please contact the blind captain for dates and times as this depends on weather and field conditions. Hours can also be earned by contacting the board or contacting a blind captain for additional work.
7. Any previous member that has dropped out of the club and wishes to rejoin will need to pay the full $500 plus a $100 re-joining fee instead of the $400 initiation fee. Provided the member was in good standing when they dropped out, a sponsorship is not required and the member will not be on a probationary period.
8. New members' dues are $900. $500 club dues and $400 initiation fee.
9. New members are automatically on a 1 year probationary period and will not have voting rights for the first year. That member's sponsor is responsible for making sure the member knows the rules of the club.
10. Sponsors of new members shall receive $100 off their next year's dues. It is the member's responsibility to tell the board who they sponsored when paying their annual dues.
11. Any violation of these rules and regulations may result in forfeiture of your membership or probation.
